

For Immediate Release

September 25, 2009

Hillsdale College to Host 2009 Theological Symposium

NASHVILLE, TN—The 2009 Theological Symposium will meet October 19-20 on the campus of Hillsdale Free Will Baptist College in Moore, Oklahoma.

The symposium begins at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, October 19, and will end at 9:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 20. Nearby hotels include Springhill Suites (405-735-2600) and LaQuinta Inn and Suites (405-759-7700).

The symposium will be a time for presentation of papers and lively discussion of important issues facing the church today. This year's program features lengthy discussions by F. Leroy Forlines on the subject "Are We Preaching the Gospel?" and Free Will Baptist astronomer and physicist Bob Hill on science and creation.

The schedule will also include a panel discussion on "Gospel Witness and Evangelicalism in an Increasingly Secular Society" as well as papers by Thomas Marberry, Matt Pinson, and others.

For more information on the symposium, contact Leroy Forlines (leroyf@fwbbc.edu) or Matt Pinson (president@fwbbc.edu).

The symposium is an annual event sponsored by the Commission for Theological Integrity of the National Association of Free Will Baptists.