

For Immediate release

May 21, 2010

Amy Walker to Coach FWBBC Volleyball

NASHVILLE, TN—Mrs. Amy Walker has been named women's volleyball coach at Free Will Baptist Bible College, according to Athletic Director Gary Turner. Mrs. Walker, a 2003 Elementary Education graduate at FWBBC, begins her duties with the 2010 fall semester. She currently coaches volleyball at nearby Donelson Christian Academy (DCA) and also teaches Science, Reading, and Math.

Mr. Turner said, "We are fortunate to have Amy Walker on staff. She has a solid volleyball background and understands the mission of FWBBC. She will provide energy and strong leadership for our young women. In five of her six years as head JV coach at DCA, Mrs. Walker's teams went undefeated in district play and won the district championship three times."

A native of Topeka, Kansas, Amy Brewer Walker was a four-year member of the Lady Flames basketball team while a student at FWBBC. She served on the Lumen staff three years, and was editor one year. In 2003, she was named "Best All-Around" student and was also named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

"I'm excited about returning to my alma mater to coach women's volleyball," Mrs. Walker said. "Yes, we have a lot of work ahead of us, but with motivated and disciplined players, I believe we can build a winning tradition at FWBBC."

Amy and her husband Mike are members of Cofer's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church in Nashville.