GO10 at FWBBC Just Ahead

NASHVILLE, TN—Free Will Baptist Bible College invites area alumni and friends to a June 19 Saturday afternoon cookout and a special drama and musical presentation honoring pioneer missionary Laura Belle Barnard when the Go10 Walk for the World event stops at the Nashville campus. The 2,500-mile trek of five million steps began April 5 and will conclude in Oklahoma City at the Free Will Baptist national convention in July.

The casual get-together begins at 3:00 p.m. Saturday in front of Davidson Hall (3600 block of Richland Avenue). FWBBC faculty and staff will host a cookout on the front lawn for all comers.

At 4:00 p.m. the celebration moves inside FWBBC's Memorial Auditorium for a brief program that includes a drama and song specially-written to honor the life and legacy of Miss Laura Belle Barnard, a Georgia native who launched the modern international missions movement among Free Will Baptists. FWBBC alumni are invited to sing in a mass choir—more details about the choir will be posted next week.
