FWBBC Sets Steve Green Concert

NASHVILLE, TN—Award-winning Christian music artist Steve Green will be in concert at Free Will Baptist Bible College on Tuesday, February 6, at 7:00 p.m. Tickets for the two-hour concert at FWBBC's Memorial Auditorium cost $15 (Artist Circle) and $10 (general admission).

President Matt Pinson said, "We invite area churches, neighborhood friends, students and faculty from local colleges, and others to join us February 6 for a special evening with one of the most uplifting and creative musicians of our day. Steve Green is unique in today's music culture. Steve's ministry reminds us what the power of God can do through a life committed to His service."

Steve Green Ministries was formed in 1984 as he launched his Christian music outreach. Steve's music has been honored with four Grammy nominations, 13 No. 1 songs, and seven Dove Awards. With more than 20 recordings, including children's projects and Spanish-language albums, Green has sold over three million albums worldwide.

The son of missionary parents, he grew up in South America. After saying No to God for 10 years, Steve (at age 26) finally understood the gospel of salvation by faith alone, in Christ alone.

"My specific calling," Steve says, "is to communicate through music the theme of spiritual awakening—the turning of hearts back to the Lord. The journey thus far has been remarkable. I plan to keep touring and telling everyone who will listen about the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ.”

Tickets for the concert may be ordered through the Music Department at Free Will Baptist Bible College.
