Georgia Northwest Tech	62

January 30, 2012. The trio of Kendred Sides, David Landers, and Steven Terrell put on quite a show Monday night in a 75-62 Flames' win over visiting Georgia Northwest Tech.

Sides and Terrell did the damage early as they scored 28 of FWBBC's first 33 points, while Landers grabbed rebounds and dished off assists. Landers' first field goal came on an offensive rebound and put-back at the 5:12 mark of the first half. That put the Flames up by 10 points. The Bobcats dug into the FWBBC lead and cut it to 41-37 at intermission.

Jabbar Grayson hit a quick three-pointer to open the second half. Landers and Sides picked up where they left off in the first half, scoring 18 of the Flames' 34 second-half points to ice the game.

"We played a solid game, overall," said Flames' Coach Nathan Willhite. "We shot pretty well in the first half and played tough defense the second half. It was a good win for us."

Sides led team scoring with 25 points. Landers, in addition to his 15 points, was a monster on the boards, pulling down a game-high 16 rebounds and dishing out four assists. Terrell scored 15 points and grabbed nine boards. The Flames had a season-low six turnovers.
