

Flames Struggle at Crown

The Crown College	25	25	25
Free Will Baptist Bible College	14	15	8

October 15, 2011. The Lady Flames hung in with Crown the first two sets of their match but couldn't finish strong and bowed to the Evangels in three straight, 25-14, 25-15, 25-8.

"We played really well the first two sets," said Flames coach Amy Walker. "The score doesn't reflect how good we looked in those two. But we started making mental errors and careless mistakes in the third game, and Crown capitalized on them."

Emily Whitworth played big at the net and led the Flames. "Even Crown's coach mentioned her to me after the game," added Walker.

Statistically, Whitworth led the team with five assists. She was also second with three kills and six digs.
