

Flames Come Up Short

The Crown College	78
Free Will Baptist Bible College	70

Down 21 points with less than 10 minutes to go, it looked like the Flames would get blown out. But FWBBC started a 14-0 run and chipped away at the Royal Crusaders lead, cutting it to four with three minutes left. Unfortunately for the Flames, they needed more time on the clock.

With under a minute left, they started fouling to get the ball back. Crown made its free throws to seal the game.

“We played too soft the first half,” said Coach Nathan Willhite. “They pulled down a number of offensive rebounds, giving them more possessions, and it killed us. We played a nice second half (outscoring the Royal Crusaders by three), but you have to play the entire 40 minutes.”

Kendred Sides was a dominant force for the Flames scoring a game-high 22 points and pulling down nine boards. David Landers was the only other Flame in double figures with 16 points.
