

Flames Lose in Five

Free Will Baptist Bible College	25	25	18	22	10
Pointe University	22	17	25	25	15

September 6, 2011. The Flames traveled to Atlanta to take on Pointe University and came away with a disappointing five-game loss.

The Flames were hot early and jumped to a quick two-game lead. But they cooled off in game three and lost 25-18. Game four bounced back and forth before the Sky Hawks prevailed 25-22. Pointe got the early lead in game five to pull away with the game and match.

Rachel Burns led the Lady Flames with eight kills. Christen Pointer and Emily Whitworth had 12 digs each, and Elizabeth Hill notched 10 digs and eight aces.

“I thought we had them,” said Coach Amy Walker. “We just need to get that first win under our belts. We played well enough to do it tonight. I continue to be pleased with our effort.”
