

Lady Flames Drop Season Volleyball Opener

Game 1 TTU 25 FWBBC 19

Game 2 TTU 25 FWBBC 9

Game 3 TTU 17 FWBBC 25

Game 4 TTU 25 FWBBC 16

The Lady Flames volleyball team opened the season August 27 with a 3-1 loss to Tennessee Temple University. FWBBC battled hard in game one, but the Crusaders made a late run to take the game 25-19. Game two was all TTU, 25-9. The Flames fought back to take game three 25-17. But, in the end, the Crusaders were too much for the visiting Flames and the match ended with a 25-16 game four.

“We played well for our first match,” said Coach Amy Walker. “We made a lot of progress during the match and focused on some weak spots that need work.”

Junior hitter Christen Pointer led the Flames with six kills and three aces. Freshmen Elizabeth Hill and Rachel Burns had nine and six digs, respectively.
