

Volleyball Drops Two

Crown College	25	25	25
Free Will Baptist Bible College	11	5	10
Ohio Christian University	25	25	25
Free Will Baptist Bible College	23	17	20

October 3, 2011. The Flames' woes continued over the weekend as they dropped a pair of Mid-East Region games to Crown College and Ohio Christian University.

Friday, the Flames came out flat and never recovered as the Royal Crusaders easily swept the match.

"I don't know where we were tonight," said Coach Amy Walker. "We couldn't seem to do anything."

Saturday's match was much closer as FWBBC started out much stronger and stayed consistent throughout the match. But, in the end, it was too much OCU.

"We did a much better job today," said Coach Walker. "I thought we did a nice job maintaining our intensity level after the way we played last night. I was proud of the way the girls scrapped for balls."

Christen Pointer led the Flames Saturday with seven kills and six blocks; Emily Whitworth with 11 digs and eight assists; Rachel Burns with 11 digs; and Katie Duttine with eight aces.
