October 31, 2011. Over the weekend, the Lady Flames' volleyball team traveled to Johnson University to compete in the Mid-East Region Tournament.

FWBBC dropped the first match in straight sets, 25-13, 25-10, 25-12 to Ohio Christian University. Rachel Burns finished with seven digs, Christen Pointer with five kills, and Emily Whitworth with four assists.

In the second match, the team played better against Johnson University, but still came up short: 25-13, 25-10, 25-15. It was a good effort by the Flames, especially after Whitworth went down with an injury in the second set.

“The girls never gave up, in spite of the good offense by JU,” said Coach Amy Walker. “They have been a good group to work with, and I think we can build off what we have since we are so young.”
