

Lady Flames Fall Short

Hiwassee College	66
Free Will Baptist Bible College	32

The FWBBC Lady Flames suffered another loss at the hands of Hiwassee College Tuesday night, 66-32.

The game was tight much of the first half, but a late Lady Tiger surge helped them build a 32-15 half-time advantage.

In the second half, Hiwassee's full-court pressure and Lady Flames' foul trouble resulted in the Lady Tigers pulling out a lopsided victory.

"They have such quick guards," said Coach Larry Bryan. "They were on us the whole night. We did a reasonably good job the first half, but they wore us down and we weren't able to break their press."

Two Lady Flames were in double figures—Loni Walser had 15 points and Jaclyn Martin 11. Rachel Burns notched 18 rebounds and four assists.
