

Lady Flames Move to 2-1

November 29, 2011. The Thanksgiving break didn't seem to affect the Lady Flames Monday night as they handily defeated Covenant College JV, 46-28.

Katie Bryan set the tone as she hit a three-pointer from near the top of the key to give FWBBC a lead they would never relinquish. The game plan called for ramped up intensity on both ends of the floor, creating turnovers on defense, and finding the open player on offense. The plan worked. Most of the Scots' shots were taken under pressure, while the Flames did a great job getting open looks with their shots.

"I was pleased with our intensity and aggressive play on defense in the first half," said Flames' coach Larry Bryan. "I think we let up a little in the second half because we had a 20-point lead most of the time. But I am still pleased with our overall play."

Katie Bryan led the Flames with 16 points and six assists. Taylor Ford and Rachel Burns were big on the boards, pulling down 11 and 10, respectively.

Now 2-1, the Flames travel to Toccoa Falls, Georgia, to play in the T.F. Classic on Friday and Saturday.
