Rev. Gary Fry, former executive director for the Missouri State Association of Free Will Baptists, joined the FWBCC staff this week as vice president for church relations. The 1972 FWBCC graduate pastored five years in Florida, 23 years in Missouri, and served as editor of both state papers—The Co-Ordinator (Florida) and GEM Magazine (Missouri).

Fry served 12 years on the FWBCC Board of Trustees, 10 years as chairman. He is a gifted journalist and speaker. While pastoring in Missouri, he led his church to found Mountain Grove Christian Academy and KFFW, a Christian radio station.

Gary's daughter Katy is a sophomore at FWBCC. His new responsibilities at FWBCC will place him in direct contact with Free Will Baptist pastors and churches in an effort to raise funds and recruit students.
